

Each day in America, senior citizens are going hungry.

At the Meals On Wheels Association of America we find this to be unacceptable. After all, we live in the richest nation on earth.

Each day in communities throughout America, local senior meal programs are working tirelessly to bring meals to seniors in need. These programs are our members and we are proud of them. Their clients are our mothers and fathers and grandparents and neighbors. They are America and they need your help.

<http://www.mealsonwheelsmd.org/>